2. In the interests of helping [ ] get this new effort off to a good start, I would appreciate your lending a receptive ear to his invitation, when it comes, to spend an informal two hours, morning or afternoon, at some time at your convenience during the week of 5 May. I will be meeting later with his class, largely on matters of process. What he will be asking you for is to lead discussion sessions based on the following subjects [ ] [ ]

STAT

- NESA: Key elements in the Middle East peace process and their impact on regional stability.
- USSR: Soviet leadership succession and its impact on issues of major concern to the U.S.; effects of a troubled Soviet economy and hard currency stringencies.
- SP: Soviet plans, policies, and capabilities for strategic conflict with the U.S.
- LA: Soviet intentions and objectives in Latin America and their relationship to Cuban activities.
- Proliferation: Principal problems concerning nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons proliferation.

3. I hope you can participate. Thanks.
